

It must be fall

The days are getting shorter and cooler. The toyon berries are blushing and the fuchsia-flowering gooseberry's buds are swelling! I miss the east coast fall but revel in our own.

Toyon (Heteromeles arbutifolia) berries are beginning to blush.

Fuchsia-flowering gooseberry (Ribes speciosum) went dormant and is now loaded with leaf buds.

Weeding Wild Suburbia

All About Gardening with California Native Plants
<http://www.weedingwildsuburbia.com>

