

Plant Selection for a Native Plant Garden

The following slide show was created for the Plant Selection and Maintenance of California Native Plants class at Rancho Santa Ana Botanic Garden today. Unfortunately we ran out of time so I couldn't show it. There were good questions and discussions during the class, so hopefully people got the info they need. Below are garden pictures of gardens based on the RSABG California Classics Palette